

Literary Analysis: The Gentlemen of the Jungle

Directions: Respond to the following in well-developed paragraphs:

1. In the story the man, the hut & the animals symbolize something else. What does each stand for?
2. What is the Commission's explanation for siding with the elephant in the dispute? What does this symbolize?
3. How does the man solve his problem with the animals? What does this represent?
4. Who do you think was the intended audience of this story? Why was it told?
5. What is the meaning of the story's title?
6. In a well-developed paragraph, discuss Kenyatta's (the author's) use of language, metaphor, and symbolism to deliver his critique of European colonialism. What was his message?

Literary Analysis: The Gentlemen of the Jungle

Directions: Respond to the following in well-developed paragraphs:

1. In the story the man, the hut & the animals symbolize something else. What does each stand for?
2. What is the Commission's explanation for siding with the elephant in the dispute? What does this symbolize?
3. How does the man solve his problem with the animals? What does this represent?
4. Who do you think was the intended audience of this story? Why was it told?
5. What is the meaning of the story's title?
6. In a well-developed paragraph, discuss Kenyatta's (the author's) use of language, metaphor, and symbolism to deliver his critique of European colonialism. What was his message?