

Semester Final Exhibition: UN Conference Issues and Project Deadlines

Global Issues. Each rotation will select 1 issue by popular vote from two of the following categories. Thereafter, each delegation must research both issues, with 1 delegate assuming primary responsibility for researching and writing the position paper regarding that issue. At the conference, however, both delegates must be prepared to discuss and debate both of the selected issues.

The UN Human Rights Council (“UNHRC”)

1. Preventing Violations of Child Labor Laws and Sweatshops.
2. Increasing Safeguards for Children with Disabilities.
3. Protecting the Political, Economic, and Cultural Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

The World Health Organization (“WHO”)

1. Expanding Access to Safe Drinking Water in Developing Nations.
2. Strengthening Global Resilience against Disease Outbreaks and Epidemics.
3. Addressing the Health Problems of International Migrants and Refugees.

The UN Environmental Assembly

1. Protecting the Oceans & Marine Life and the Law of the Sea.
2. Increasing Global Access to Renewable Energy.
3. Preserving the Rainforest and Safeguarding Biological Diversity.
4. Addressing the Needs of Global Climate Refugees.

Project Deadlines and Additional Requirements

Country & Issue Selection		Wednesday, May 8 th .
Background Country Profile (1 per delegate)		Due: Monday, May 20 th .
 2-3 pages typed
 List of Works Cited
Global Issue Position Papers (1 per delegate)		Due: Wednesday, May 22 nd .
 1 ½ - 2 pages typed
 List of Works Cited
Draft Resolutions (1 per delegate)		Due: Friday, May 24 th .
 1 Resolution for each Global Issue
 Maximum 1 page typed
Final Resolutions, Placard & Appropriate Attire		Due: Wednesday, May 29 th (7B & 8B) Friday, May 31 st . (6B)